

Term project

We will be sharing datasets to train models for identifying different classes of accounts

- Human vs. bot
- Political message or not
- Politically leaning left or right

You will be involved various stage of the process: data annotation, model building, evaluation and competition.

We are going to conduct a competition with a leader board updated periodically.